

November

News from The Fourth Grade Team

We recently updated our schedule by increasing our literacy block in order to target particular reading skills.

Wednesday, November 23rd has now become an early release day for students and staff.

We hope you enjoy your time with family and friends this Thanksgiving!

Reading:

As we finish our discussion on the colonization of NC, we will begin to study the differences between poetry, prose and drama using Greek Mythology.

Important Dates:

Reading Night- Nov. 15

Rachel's Challenge- Nov. 17

Math:

We will be practicing several strategies for multiplication and division with multi-digit whole numbers.